To achieve that goal, the Bank may engage in various activities, including provision of specialist services in favour of selected affiliated undertakings of the Bank and the dominant shareholder's group's members.

IIA. OTHER RIGHTS OF THE BANK

§ 6a

The Bank has the right to perform actions provided for domestic banks and related to handling applications in proceedings regarding childcare allowance referred to in the provisions of the Law on State Aid in Childcare .

III. BANK'S GOVERNING BODIES

The Bank shall have the following bodies:

- 1) General Meeting,
- 2) Supervisory Board,
- 3) Management Board.

1. GENERAL MEETING

1. The General Meeting may be convened in the form of ordinary General Meeting or extraordinary General Meeting. The General Meeting shall be convened by the Management Board.
2. The Ordinary General Meeting shall be held once a year, not later than within 6 months from the end of each financial year.
3. The Extraordinary General Meeting shall be convened as required by the Bank Management Board upon its own initiative or at the request of the Supervisory Board, or at the request of a shareholder or shareholders representing jointly at least 1/20th of the share capital. The request of the shareholder or shareholders should be submitted to the Bank Management Board in writing or in the electronic form.
4. The Supervisory Board shall have the right to convene:
 - Ordinary General Meeting, should the Management Board fail to do so within the time limit laid down in Paragraph 2;
 - Extraordinary General Meeting, as the Supervisory Board may deem to convene the Extraordinary General Meeting as desirable.
5. A shareholder or shareholders representing jointly at least 1/20 of the Bank's share capital may demand that Extraordinary General Meeting be convened, as well as that certain matters be put on the agenda of this General Meeting. Shareholders representing at least half of the Bank's share capital or having at least half of the votes in general may convene an Extraordinary General Meeting. Shareholders shall appoint the chairman of such Extraordinary General Meeting.
6. The General Meeting is convened through an announcement made on the Bank's website and in the manner specified for the submission of current information in accordance with the provisions on public offer and terms of introduction of financial instruments to organized trading, and on public companies, at least twenty six days before the date of the General Meeting.
7. Cancelling or changing of the date of the General Meeting, which has been convened at the request of the shareholders of the Bank, may only be possible at the consent of the shareholders that requested for such a meeting. In any other cases the General Meeting may be cancelled if there are extraordinary obstacles for it to be held. In case the General Meeting date is changed or the meeting cancelled, the new date should be fixed in such a manner that the shareholders of the Bank are notified of the new date of the General Meeting not later than three weeks in advance of such date.

1. All matters put on the General Meeting's agenda by the Management Board shall be presented to the Supervisory Board for consideration beforehand. A shareholder or shareholders representing jointly at least 1/20 of the Bank's share capital may demand that certain matters be put on the agenda of the next General Meeting. A shareholder or shareholders shall submit it in writing or by electronic mail to the Management Board, which in turn shall present it together with its opinion to the Supervisory Board.
2. The request mentioned in paragraph 1, containing the statement of reasons or the draft resolution concerning the proposed item on the agenda, should be submitted to the Bank Management Board no later than 21 days before the appointed date of the General Meeting.
3. Removal of an item from the agenda or resignation to process a matter put on the agenda at the request of the shareholders of the Bank shall require a resolution to be passed by the General Meeting of the Bank and consent of all the shareholders of the Bank, who had requested to put such an item on the agenda of the General Meeting.

1. Shareholders may attend General Meetings in person or by proxy.
2. The power of attorney to participate in the General Meeting and to exercise the voting right must be drawn up in the written form, otherwise invalid, and it should be enclosed with the minutes. The representatives of shareholders and their attorneys should present excerpts from registers or other documents mentioning persons authorised to represent those entities. The power of attorney to participate in the General Meeting and to exercise the voting right may also be in the electronic form. The provision of a power of attorney in the electronic form does not require a secure digital signature verifiable with the use of a valid qualified certificate. Detailed principles of the shareholders' participation in the General Meeting and the procedure applied during the General Meeting, as well as the method of communication of shareholders with the Bank using the electronic communication media, including the notification on the provision of a power of attorney in the electronic form, are contained in the Regulations of the General Meeting.
3. The voting shall be open. Secret ballot shall be ordered in the case of voting on applications for dismissal of members of the Bank's bodies or liquidators, or for holding them liable, as well as on staff matters. Apart from the above, secret ballot shall be held upon demand of at least one of the shareholders present or one of shareholder proxies present.
4. Each share shall confer one vote at the General Meeting.

§ 11

The General Meeting shall be opened by the Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board. Should none of them be able to open the General Meeting, the meeting shall be opened by a member of the Supervisory Board. Should any of those persons be absent the General Meeting shall be opened by the President of the Management Board or the person appointed by the Management Board. The General Meeting shall elect a Chairman from among the persons entitled to vote at the General Meeting or their proxies.

§ 12

1. The subject matter of the Ordinary General Meeting shall be to:
 - 1) examine and approve the Management Board's report on the Bank's operations and financial statements for the previous financial year,
 - 2) examine and approve the Management Board's activity report on the Bank's capital group and consolidated financial statement of the capital group for the previous financial year,
 - 3) pass a resolution on profit distribution or covering a loss,
 - 4) grant members of the Bank's bodies the vote of acceptance for the performance of their duties.
2. The competencies of the General Meeting include, moreover, passing of resolutions in the following matters:
 - 1) amendment of the Articles of Association of the Bank;
 - 2) appointing and recalling the members of the Supervisory Board;
 - 3) increasing or decreasing the share capital of the Bank;
 - 4) issuing convertible bonds and bonds with pre-emption right in taking up the shares of the Bank, as well as subscription warrants;
 - 5) redemption of shares and determination of detailed conditions of such redemption;
 - 6) merger or liquidation of the Bank, choice of liquidators or the method of liquidation;
 - 7) determination of the principles of remuneration and the remuneration of the members of the Supervisory Board;
 - 8) matters submitted by the Supervisory Board or Bank Management Board;
 - 9) matters submitted by the shareholders in compliance with the regulations in force and these Articles of Association;
 - 10) other matters reserved by law and the provisions of these Articles of Association.
3. Purchase or sale of real property, share in real property, or the right of perpetual usufruct shall not require a resolution of the General Meeting.

1. The General Meeting may pass resolutions only if it has been convened in compliance with § 8 and if shareholders representing at least 50% of the share capital are present. If less than 50% of the share capital is represented at the General Meeting, the Management Board convenes a General Meeting with the same agenda once again, setting a new date of such a meeting on the first possible date allowed by the law. Should this be the case, the next General Meeting shall be valid irrespective of the percentage of share capital represented, notwithstanding unconditionally binding provisions of the Code of Commercial Companies and Partnerships.
2. Except as provided for in absolutely binding law and these Articles of Association, the resolutions of the General Meeting shall be passed with a simple majority of votes cast. The resolutions of the General Meeting on amendments to the Articles of Association, including in particular a change of the Bank's business name, its registered office, profile of activities referred to in § 5 (2), increase or decrease of the Bank's share capital, issue of convertible bonds and bonds with priority right of taking up the Bank's shares, as well as subscription warrants, and also liquidation or dissolution of the Bank, sales of the entire or part of the banking enterprise, are adopted with the majority of three fourths of votes cast. A resolution on the merger of the Bank with another bank or credit institution, requires the resolution of the General Meeting adopted with the majority of two thirds of votes.

1. The Bank may issue inscribed shares and bearer shares.
2. Bearer shares shall not be convertible into inscribed shares unless the obligation to convert results from the law.

General Meetings of Shareholders shall be held at the Bank's registered office.

§ 16

1. The Bank Supervisory Board shall be composed of five to twelve members appointed for a joint five-year term of office by the General Meeting. The number of members of the Supervisory Board of the particular term of office shall be determined by the General Meeting. At least half of the members of the Bank Supervisory Board should have good knowledge of the banking market in Poland, i.e. they should have a good command of Polish and have gained the required experience on the Polish market.
2. The Supervisory Board elects the Chairman and the Vice Chairmen from among its members.
3. At least two members of the Supervisory Board should be independent members. Independent members of the Supervisory Board should not be related to the Bank, the Bank shareholders or employees in a manner which could significantly affect or give rise to a justified assumption that it significantly affects the ability of the independent member of the Supervisory Board to make unbiased decisions.
4. A person who jointly meets the following conditions is deemed to be an independent member of the Supervisory Board:
 - a) s/he does not hold and has not held within the last five years, the function of a member of the management board or another managerial function, regardless of the legal form of employment, whether in the Bank, its subsidiaries and parent entity;
 - b) s/he is not and has not been employed in the Bank, its subsidiaries or parent entity, or in associated entities of the Bank, within the last three years;
 - c) s/he does not receive any additional remuneration apart from the consideration due for the membership in the Supervisory Board, or any other financial benefits from the Bank, its subsidiaries or its parent entity, with the exception of benefits owed to him/her as a consumer who has entered into an agreement on standard terms with the Bank, its subsidiary or parent entity;
 - d) s/he is not a shareholder or member of the management, managerial personnel or employee of the shareholder holding shares representing more than 5% of the general number of votes at the General Meeting of the Bank, nor is a member of the management, managerial personnel or employee of the shareholder of the Bank holding such number of shares which makes it possible to effectively control the Bank;

- e) s/he has not had, during the year preceding the election for the Supervisory Board and does not currently have, any material commercial or business connections with the Bank, its subsidiaries and parent entity which could significantly affect his/her independence;
 - f) s/he is not and has not been within the last three years a chartered auditor or employee, member of the management, managerial personnel or shareholder of an entity providing chartered auditor's services to the Bank, its subsidiaries or parent entity;
 - g) s/he is not a member of a management board in another company in which a member of the Bank Management Board is a member of the supervisory board;
 - h) s/he does not have material connections with members of the Bank Management Board manifested in the joint shareholding in other companies or governing bodies of those companies;
 - i) s/he is not and has not been, within the last three years, a spouse, partner or relative of a member of the Bank Management Board, or an employee holding a position in the Bank which is directly subordinated to the Bank Management Board or a member of the Bank Management Board.
5. Whenever due to the expiry of mandates of certain members of the Supervisory Board, or whenever the General Meeting is incapable of appointing one or more members of the Supervisory Board, the number of members of the Supervisory Board is lower than that specified in the resolution of the General Meeting appointing members of the Bank Supervisory Board, but no lower than 5 (five), the Supervisory Board will be able to adopt valid resolutions until its composition is supplemented. In such a case the Management Board immediately convenes the General Meeting in order to supplement the composition of the Supervisory Board. If the number of independent members of the Supervisory Board is lower than the number of independent members of the Supervisory Board specified in para. 3, and the number of the members of the Supervisory Board is not less than 5 (five), the Supervisory Board will be able to adopt valid resolutions until its composition is supplemented with an appropriate number of independent members. In such a case the Management Board shall immediately convene the General Meeting in order to supplement the composition of the Supervisory Board with the appropriate number of the independent members.
6. Members of the Supervisory Board may perform their duties only personally, and members of the Supervisory Board may participate in the adoption of resolutions by the Supervisory Board, casting their votes in writing via another member of the Supervisory Board. The vote cast in writing via another member of the Supervisory Board may not concern matters introduced to the agenda at the meeting of the Supervisory Board. The adoption of resolutions under this procedure may not concern the election of the Chairman and the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board, appointment of a member of the Management Board as well as appointment and suspension of those persons in their duties.
7. A member of the Supervisory Board may be reappointed for the Supervisory Board but for no more than three consecutive terms of office.

1. Without prejudice to the provisions of § 16 para. 1, the mandate of the member of the Supervisory Board shall expire at the latest on the date of convening the General Meeting approving the financial statements of the Bank for the last full year of fulfilling the functions of the members of the Supervisory Board. The mandate of a member of the Supervisory Board appointed before the end of a given term of office of the Supervisory Board, shall expire at the same time when the mandates of the other member of the Supervisory Board expire. The mandate of a member of the Supervisory Board shall also expire due to the member's death or resignation from the Supervisory Board or recalling the member from the Supervisory Board.
2. The appointment of a new member for the Supervisory Board to replace the member whose mandate expired during the term of office of the Supervisory Board takes place in accordance with the rules specified in § 16.

1. The Supervisory Board acts pursuant to the By-laws passed by the Board itself.
2. The meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened and chaired by the Chairman, and in his or her absence, the Vice Chairman. The meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened in the form of a written notification sent no later than fourteen days before the proposed date of the meeting. The notification of the calling of the Supervisory Board to a meeting should specify the proposed date and time, place and agenda of the meeting.
3. The meetings of the Supervisory Board are convened as necessary, no less frequently, however than once a quarter.
4. A member of the Supervisory Board, as well as the Bank Management Board, may request that the Chairman or the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board, quoting the proposed agenda. The Chairman, and if necessary the Vice Chairman, convenes meetings of the Supervisory Board within two weeks of receiving the request. If the Chairman or the Vice Chairman of the Supervisory Board fail to convene the meeting within two weeks of receiving the request mentioned in this paragraph 4, the applicant may convene a meeting of the Supervisory Board independently, specifying the proposed date and time, the place and agenda of the meeting.
5. The meetings of the Supervisory Board are minuted.

1. For the validity of the resolutions of the Supervisory Board, it is required that all of the members of the Supervisory Board be notified in writing about the meeting and at least a half of the members of the Supervisory Board be present in the meeting, including the Chairman or Vice Chairman. If due to the absence of the Chairman and the Vice Chairman in the meeting of the Supervisory Board, the Supervisory Board cannot pass valid resolutions, the meeting of the Supervisory Board shall be convened again, providing for fourteen-day's prior notice sent immediately after the end of the first meeting of the Supervisory Board, with the same agenda. At the further meeting of the Supervisory Board, the presence of the Chairman or Vice Chairman is not necessary for passing valid resolutions by the Supervisory Board.

2. Resolutions of the Supervisory Board are usually adopted by an ordinary majority of votes of Board members present at the meeting. In the case where the number of votes is equal, the Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall have the casting vote.
3. Resolutions concerning matters specified in § 20 para. 1 item 1 section k) below are adopted provided a majority of independent members of the Supervisory Board cast their votes for such resolutions.

1. The competencies of the Supervisory Board, besides the rights and duties provided for in legal regulations and provisions of these Articles of Association, include also:
 - 1) adoption of resolutions concerning:
 - a) the annual financial plan of the Bank,
 - b) appointment and dismissal of members of the Bank Management Board,
 - c) approval of making equity investments by the Bank, if the value of such an investment (understood as the purchase price or sale price of a specific asset) exceeds the equivalent of PLN 40,000,000 (forty million zlotys), except entering into securities underwriting agreements, whereas the term “equity investment” should be understood as the purchase and sale of shares/interest, joining and withdrawal from commercial law companies,
 - d) expression of consent to the acquisition or disposal of real estate, a share in real estate or perpetual usufruct, if their value amounts at least to PLN 10,000,000 (ten million zlotys), provided however, that the resolution of the Supervisory Board is not required when the acquisition or disposal of the real estate, interest in real estate or perpetual usufruct right is related to the satisfaction of the Bank’s claims against its debtor, securing the Bank’s receivables, or is subject to a lease agreement (umowa leasingu), in which the Bank is the financing party, including in particular any acquisition in the performance of the lease agreement, disposal after the termination of the lease terms or during the same, as well as disposal after the termination of the lease agreement concerning particular real estate, interest in real estate or perpetual usufruct right, regardless of the value of such real estate, interest therein or perpetual usufruct right,
 - e) approving motions of the Bank Management Board concerning the establishment of a Bank branch abroad,
 - f) adoption of regulations for granting credits, loans, bank guarantees or sureties to members of governing bodies of the Bank, persons in managerial positions and entities related to them organizationally and in terms of capital,
 - g) appointment of the statutory auditor to conduct the audit of the Bank’s financial statements and consolidated financial statement of the Capital Group,
 - h) specification of principles of remuneration and amount of remuneration for members of the Management Board,
 - i) approval of the development strategy of the Bank, as prepared by the Management Board,

- j) giving consent to conducting operations the purpose of which is to contract a liability or dispose of assets with the total value in relation to one entity exceeding 10% of shareholders' equity, with the exception of banking operations referred to in § 5 para. 2, operations referred to in § 5 para. 3 item 3 and § 6 para. 1 item 3, and contracting lombard loans,
 - k) giving consent to conducting transactions with the Bank affiliated entities which may not be classified jointly as typical transactions conducted as part of the current activities of the Bank, concluded on market conditions,
 - l) (deleted)
 - m) establishment of the consolidated text of the Articles of Association immediately after the General Meeting which resolved the amendments to the Articles of Association and introduction of other editorial amendments specified in the General Meeting's resolution,
- 2) exercising continuous supervision over the Bank's operations, and in particular:
- a) evaluation of the report of the Management Board on the Bank's operations, and the Bank's financial statements for the previous financial year, as regards their compliance with books of accounts and documents, as well as the facts, evaluation of the Management Board's motions concerning the profit division or loss coverage,
 - b) evaluation of the report on operations and financial statements for the previous financial year for the group, as regards their compliance with books of accounts and documents, as well as the facts,
 - c) suspension - for valid reasons - of individual or all members of Management Board in their duties,
 - d) delegation of members of the Supervisory Board for a period not exceeding three months to perform temporarily the duties of members of the Management Board who have been dismissed, who resigned or cannot hold their functions for other reasons,
 - e) submission of an annual written report to the General Meeting on the results of the evaluation mentioned in letters a), b) and f),
 - f) supervision over the implementation of the internal control system and evaluation of the adequacy and efficiency of the Bank's internal control system.
2. The Supervisory Board provides opinions to any motions and issues that require a resolution of the General Meeting except for draft resolutions relating to organizational and formal matters. The members of the Supervisory Board participate in the General Meetings. Failure to provide the opinion by the Supervisory Board does not limit the right of the Management Board to convene the General Meeting or include specific issues in the agenda of the Meeting.
3. The Supervisory Board represents the Bank in the agreements and disputes with the members of the Bank Management Board, acting through two members authorized by the Supervisory Board.

4. The Supervisory Board may adopt resolutions in writing or using means of direct remote communication.
5. The Supervisory Board creates internal committees composed of members of the Supervisory Board, and in particular the Audit Committee, Remuneration Committee, Nomination Committee and Risk Committee. The organization, competencies and scope of the responsibilities of the internal committees are specified in the By-laws of the Supervisory Board.
6. The majority of the Audit Committee members fulfil conditions of independence stipulated in the Act on Statutory Auditors, their Self-Governing Organisations, Entities Authorised to Audit Financial Statements and on Public Oversight, and at least one of them has qualifications in the field of accountancy and audit of financial statements. The above independence requirement is deemed satisfied if the terms and conditions set forth in this paragraph are fulfilled by persons specified in § 16 para. 4.

All registered shares which have previously been deposited in the depository maintained by an investment company indicated by the Bank in accordance with Article 6 (1) of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments, will be converted into bearer shares subject to their dematerialization. The conversion of the registered shares deposited in the depository mentioned in the previous sentence into bearer shares will take place automatically, upon their dematerialization. The dematerialization of shares, in accordance with Article 5 (1) of the Act on Trading in Financial Instruments takes place upon the registration of shares on the basis of an agreement with the National Depository for Securities. All dematerialized shares of the Bank shall be the subject of an application for their admission to trading on the regulated market operated by the Warsaw Stock Exchange. The shares which have not been dematerialized remain registered shares in the form of a document.

2. The Bank may issue other shares.
3. The Bank's shares may be issued in the form of global share certificates.
4. Shareholders have the pre-emption right to claim new shares proportionally to the number of shares held.
5. In the event that a request is submitted to the Management Board of the Bank, by a shareholder entered into share register, for a duplicate of a share certificate that has been destroyed or lost, the provisions of the decree on the redemption of lost documents dated 10 December 1946 (Journal of Laws of 1947, No. 5, item 20) shall not apply. The request must include the series, number of the share it refers to and statement regarding lost or destruction of the share certificate. The Management Board of the Bank shall make an announcement on the destruction or loss of the share certificate, calling on those who are in possession of the share certificate to submit it to the Bank together with their claims thereto, within the period specified by the Management Board of the Bank, which shall in no case be shorter than one week, or else the share certificate will be cancelled by the Management Board of the Bank and the duplicate will be issued to the person entered in the share register as being entitled to it. If a person who claims to have rights to the share certificate submits the share certificate within the deadline, the Management Board of the Bank shall inform the requester of this fact, close the proceedings concerning the issuance of a duplicate of the share certificate and return the share certificate to the person who submitted it. If the person who does not claim to have rights to the share certificate submits the share certificate, the Management Board of the Bank shall award it to the person entered in the share register as being entitled to it. The costs of making the announcements and issuing the duplicate shall be incurred by the requester. The same rules shall apply to multiple-share certificates.

1. The Bank's shares may be redeemed.
2. The method, procedure and terms of redemption of shares is determined each time by the General Meeting.

§ 31

1. Series B registered shares are preference shares.
2. The preference mentioned in paragraph 1 covers the right to acquire the payment of full nominal amount per share in the case of liquidation of the Bank after creditors' claims have been satisfied, before the payments per ordinary shares, where the payments may be insufficient to cover the nominal value of those shares as a result of the execution of the right of preference.
3. In the case where B series inscribed shares are converted into bearer shares, the preference mentioned in paragraph 2 shall expire.

1. Additional capital is established from net profit deductions in a fiscal year and a surplus obtained at issuing shares above their nominal value, remaining after covering the costs of issuance, from additional capital payments made by shareholders in exchange for assigning special rights to their existing shares without increasing the share capital. Additional capital may be earmarked for the coverage of balance sheet losses. The decision on using the additional capital is taken by the General Meeting.
2. Reserve capital is established regardless of the additional capital from net profit deductions in a fiscal year, earmarked to cover the balance sheet loss. The decision on using the reserve capital is taken by the General Meeting.
