- 22) Supervisory Board – the supervisory board of the Bank.

1.2. Purpose of the Policy

- 1.2.1. The Bank implements a policy of assessing the individual suitability of candidates to serve as members of the Supervisory Board and of already appointed members of the Supervisory Board, as well as assessing the collective suitability of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body.
- 1.2.2. The Policy is intended to ensure a consistent system for selecting candidates to serve as members of the Supervisory Board and assessing their competence in terms of their knowledge, skills and professional experience, and the guarantee they give for the proper performance of their functions at the Bank, which relates in particular to reputation, integrity and reliability as well as the ability to perform the entrusted function in a prudent and stable manner. The Policy is also intended to ensure a consistent system for assessing compliance with the condition of individual suitability of already appointed members of the Supervisory Board, and the collective suitability of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body in accordance with the requirements referred to in Article 22aa of the Banking Law, EBA Guidelines, the FSA Methodology, Recommendation Z, Code of Best Practices as well as other legal instruments regulating the aforementioned scope of the Bank's activities.
- 1.2.3. The Policy contributes to more effective management of the Bank by ensuring that the members of the Supervisory Board are suitable persons to perform this function and that, collectively, the members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, at all times, have the appropriate combined level of knowledge, skills and professional experience necessary to properly perform the Bank's supervisory function, including monitoring and remedying the actions of the Management Board.
- 1.2.4. The Policy contributes to ensuring the comprehensiveness of the composition of the Supervisory Board as a body of the Bank by way of electing to its composition persons who ensure diversity under the terms of the Policy. The Policy defines the goals and criteria of diversity in accordance with the requirements referred to in the EBA Guidelines, the Code of Best Practices and other legal acts regulating this scope of the Bank's activities.
- 1.2.5. The Policy also determines the sufficient number of independent members and defines the criteria of assessing which of the members of the Supervisory Board may be considered independent in the sense that they currently do not have, nor ever had, any connections with or relations to the Bank or members of the Management Board that could have a significant impact on an objective, measured assessment of the situation by those members of the Supervisory Board and could reduce their capacity to make independent decisions.

1.3. Scope of the Policy

- 1.3.1. The Policy applies to each appointed Supervisory Board member and to all candidates for Supervisory Board members.
- 1.3.2. The Policy sets out the Bank's suitability assessment actions, including:
 - 1) the rules for carrying out individual suitability assessments of Supervisory Board members and collective suitability assessments of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body;
 - 2) the methodology for carrying out suitability assessments,
 - 3) criteria for carrying out suitability assessments,
 - 4) procedure for carrying out the suitability assessment,
 - 5) rules for monitoring the validity of the suitability assessment carried out,
 - 6) rules for ensuring that the Supervisory Board has an adequate number of independent members and contributes to increasing the diversity of its composition,
 - 7) rules governing the process of introducing into duties and managing the process of succession.

1.4. Responsibility for implementing and monitoring the Policy

- 1.4.1. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 1.4.3 and 1.4.4, the Management Board is responsible for implementing the Policy and for developing any amendments to it, in particular if the Supervisory Board issues a recommendation in this regard.
- 1.4.2. The General Meeting approves the Policy and the amendments hereto proposed by the Management Board based on the opinion of the Supervisory Board.

- 1.4.3. The Supervisory Board gives its opinion on the amendments to the Policy proposed to the General Meeting by the Management Board, taking into account the recommendations of the Nomination Committee, as well as taking into account any comments from members of the Advisory Team, or recommendations from the Bank's internal audit function.
- 1.4.4. The Supervisory Board is, subject to paragraph 1.4.5, responsible for:
- 1) reviewing the process of implementation of the Policy and monitoring its actual application, particularly in terms of achieving the assumed objectives of the Policy, including:
 - a) observance of the principle of diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board,
 - b) suitability of the Supervisory Board as a whole body within the framework of the general corporate governance rules and the corporate culture of the Bank and the BNP Paribas Group,
 - 2) recommending to the General Meeting and the Management Board the need for and scope of amendments to the Policy, in particular on the basis of comments from the Advisory Team or the head of the unit from the HR Area, or on the basis of recommendations from the Bank's internal audit function,
 - 3) day-to-day monitoring of situations that may have an impact on the individual or collective suitability assessment of Supervisory Board members.
- 1.4.5. The Advisory Team reviews information on the application of the Policy on a day-to-day basis and evaluates whether the Policy complies with generally applicable laws or the Bank's internal regulations, as well as with the recommendations of the supervisory authority, and reports to the Supervisory Board on compliance risks identified in this regard or instances of non-compliance of the Policy. The Advisory Team may update the wording of the Instruction explaining the suitability assessment process constituting Appendix 1 to the Policy, without the need to amend the Policy.
- 1.4.6. When performing the tasks referred to in paragraphs 1.4.1-1.4.5, the competent corporate bodies of the Bank and the Advisory Team are supported by the HR Unit.
- 1.4.7. The HR Unit in cooperation with other relevant organizational units and teams, including the Management Board and Organization Office, and if necessary – also with the participation of independent, external advisors, performs technical activities related to the suitability assessment of Persons subject to suitability assessment.

1.5. Effective date of the Policy

- 1.5.1. The Policy in the wording set forth herein takes effect as of the date of approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 1.5.2. Supervisory Board members are subject to suitability assessments in accordance with the Policy as of the effective date hereof.

2. Rules for carrying out suitability assessments

2.1. Assumptions of the suitability assessment process

- 2.1.1. The suitability assessment process covers Supervisory Board members and candidates for Supervisory Board members with regard to whom an initial and follow-up individual suitability assessment, as well as a collective suitability assessment of Supervisory Board members as a whole body is carried out.
- 2.1.2. Members of the Supervisory Board are appointed and dismissed by the General Meeting on the terms resulting from the Policy of appointing and dismissing members of the Supervisory Board of BNP Paribas Bank Polska S.A. taking into account the results of the initial suitability assessment of the Candidate or the collective assessment of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body - in cases where such an assessment is additionally carried out.
- 2.1.3. Supervisory Board members are selected in such a way as to ensure that competent persons who will properly perform the function entrusted to them are selected.
- 2.1.4. Assessing the suitability of Supervisory Board members is one of the mandatory components of the process of appointing Supervisory Board members. However, a positive result of the suitability assessment is not tantamount to a decision appointing the Person subject to assessment as a Supervisory Board member.
- 2.1.5. Individual suitability of a person to be assessed in the selection process means that the person meets the following requirements:
- 1) he/she has a sufficient level of knowledge, skills and professional experience to perform a reliable assessment and control of management decisions, as well as to understand the activities of the Bank and the related risks, including sufficient competence in the knowledge of ESG and ML/FT risk management, as well as appropriate personal competencies, which together guarantee the proper performance by that person of the function entrusted to him,

- 2) he/she gives a guarantee of proper performance of the function entrusted to him/her, in view of, among other things, impeccable reputation, integrity and ethics in past conduct that together render such person reliable,
 - 3) he/she demonstrates independence of judgment,
 - 4) he/she devotes a sufficient amount of time to the performance of the function entrusted to him/her and complies with requirements on holding several positions (the number of positions or functions/activities held or performed at the same time),
 - 5) he/she contributes to the overall suitability of the Supervisory Board as a whole body.
- 2.1.6. Without prejudice to the General Meeting's powers to appoint Supervisory Board members, in selecting new Supervisory Board members, the General Meeting shall take into account:
- 1) the purpose of ensuring continuity of decision-making in overseeing the Bank's activities, thereby avoiding, as far as possible, the situation of replacing too many Supervisory Board members at the same time,
 - 2) the need to ensure that the Bank's strategic objectives are pursued,
 - 3) the Bank's obligation to have an adequate number of independent members on the Supervisory Board,
 - 4) the principle of diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board,
 - 5) the need to ensure the collective suitability of the composition of the Supervisory Board as a whole body.

2.2. Individual suitability assessment criteria

- 2.2.1. The individual suitability assessment of a Person subject to assessment is carried out taking into account the following criteria:
- 1) knowledge, skills and professional experience in:
 - a) significant areas of the Bank's activities and the major risks that may arise from the activities of the Bank or its clients and counterparties, including ESG risks and ML/FT risks;
 - b) significant areas of sector/financial competence, including financial and capital markets, solvency and models;
 - c) bank management and strategic planning skills and experience;
 - d) information technology and cybersecurity;
 - e) local and regional markets;
 - f) financial accounting and reporting;
 - g) risk management, compliance and internal audit;
 - h) legal and regulatory environment;
 - i) management of national groups and the risks associated with the structures of such groups;
 - 2) in terms of guarantee of proper performance of the assigned function, taking into account, inter alia:
 - a) the person's reputation,
 - b) financial standing,
 - c) criminal record,
 - d) ability to make independent judgments, taking into account behavioural traits,
 - e) the absence of a potential conflict of interest;
 - 3) in terms of spending sufficient time to perform the assigned function, taking into account:
 - a) the number of other activities, or functions or mandates held at the same time,
 - b) actual participation in the work of the Supervisory Board.
- 2.2.2. In assessing whether the Person subject to assessment fulfils the requirement to have the relevant knowledge, skills and professional experience, his/her competence are considered jointly.
- 2.2.3. In assessing whether the requirement for the guarantee of proper performance of the assigned function is fulfilled, all of the demonstrated predispositions of the Person subject to assessment (in terms of the tested behavioural traits), the previous conduct of this person, as well as other known events or circumstances concerning this person, including the surrounding circumstances, such as the passage of time since that person committed the infringement or prohibited act, the behaviour of the given person in the period since the infringement or prohibited act was committed, and the relation of the prohibited act or infringement to the role performed by that person, are analysed. The person's conduct in both the professional and personal initiatives or activities in a public domain over an extended period of time is assessed.
- 2.2.4. The detailed matrix of assessment criteria, according to which the individual suitability assessment is carried out, corresponds in its scope to the criteria set out in the model consolidated form for (primary and follow-up) individual suitability assessment of candidates for, and persons holding the position of, the members of the bodies of banks and entities managing protection schemes (hereinafter also referred to as "PFSA model individual assessment form"), as part of the PFSA Methodology.

2.3. Collective suitability assessment criteria

- 2.3.1. The collective suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body includes the competence of each Supervisory Board member in terms of:
- 1) the ability to organise his/her tasks effectively and efficiently,
 - 2) the ability to present his/her views and influence the decision-making process within the Supervisory Board,
 - 3) the ability to understand and review decisions made by the Management Board,
 - 4) the ability to challenge management practices applied and decisions made by the Management Board.
- 2.3.2. In terms of knowledge, skills and professional experience of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, the collective suitability assessment covers the areas for which Supervisory Board members are collectively responsible.
- 2.3.3. In assessing the collective suitability of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, consideration is given to their activities in the Supervisory Board's committees.
- 2.3.4. The detailed matrix of assessment criteria, according to which the collective suitability assessment is made, corresponds in its scope to the criteria set out in the model form of collective suitability assessment of the members of the bodies of supervised entities and the audit committee's collective suitability assessment form, which have been published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology.

2.4. Independence of the Supervisory Board members

- 2.4.1. There should not be less than two independent members in the composition of the Supervisory Board. At the same time, the Bank ensures that the Audit Committee, the Risk Committee, the Remuneration Committee and the Nomination Committee is composed by a majority of independent members, including the Chairperson of those committees. The Chairperson of the Risk Committee should not act as a chairperson of any other committee.
- 2.4.2. The independence of a Supervisory Board member is to be understood as follows:
- 1) he/she meets the independence criteria for a member of the audit committee specified in the Act on Statutory Auditors, Audit Firms and on Public Supervision, as well as the independence criteria specified in the Good Practices of Companies Listed on the WSE;
 - 2) he/she neither had in the past nor currently has relationships or connections with the Bank as an institution, the Bank's shareholders or members of the Management Board of such nature that could affect his/her objective and balanced judgment, or that could restrict him/her from making independent (impartial) decisions within the Supervisory Board,
 - 3) he/she jointly meets the other independence criteria set forth in the Bank's Articles of Association.
- 2.4.3. As part of the general tasks of the Supervisory Board, independent members of the Supervisory Board play a key role in:
- 1) increasing the effectiveness of the Bank's control mechanisms and exercising sound supervision of the Bank's management decision-making,
 - 2) ensuring proper management of conflicts of interest concerning Management Board members,
 - 3) ensuring that the interests of all stakeholders, including minority shareholders, are duly considered in discussions and decisions made by the Supervisory Board,
 - 4) ensuring that no member of the Supervisory Board or a small group of members of the Supervisory Board has an advantage in the decision-making process.
- 2.4.4. Circumstances disqualifying a person from being an "independent" member of the Supervisory Board are specified in the "Independence" section of the PFSA consolidated individual assessment form published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology.

2.5. Diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board

- 2.5.1. The Bank promotes diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board in order to reach a wide range of competencies, as well as to attract a variety of experiences and viewpoints to ensure independent opinions in order for the Supervisory Board to make the best possible decisions.
- 2.5.2. The Bank takes into account the diversity issue when proposing candidates for Supervisory Board members.
- 2.5.3. The Bank seeks to ensure sufficient diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board in terms of the following criteria:
- 1) gender,
 - 2) age,
 - 3) geographic origin,
 - 4) education, professional experience and seniority,
 - 5) skills or expertise.

- 2.5.4. The Bank seeks to maintain a share of the under-represented gender in the Bank's Supervisory Board of at least 30%.
- 2.5.5. The Bank strives to ensure that the composition of the Supervisory Board is characterised by a balanced age structure that provides a broad spectrum in terms of education, professional experience, as well as skills and expertise.
- 2.5.6. The Bank assesses diversity in the Supervisory Board in terms of education, professional experience and expertise taking into account the Bank's current and strategic objectives, years of service, as well as current and planned priority projects.
- 2.5.7. As regards ensuring diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board in the context of geographical origin, the Nomination Committee takes into account the Bank's cooperation within the BNP Paribas Group.
- 2.5.8. In searching for candidates for Supervisory Board members, one should not be guided by the objective of increasing the diversity of its composition to the detriment of the functioning of the Supervisory Board as a whole body or to the detriment of the collective suitability assessment of the members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body or the individual suitability assessment of the already appointed members of the Supervisory Board.
- 2.5.9. The Bank documents its assessment of the diversity of the Supervisory Board composition as part of its annual review of the Supervisory Board's activities and, if necessary, determines the reasons why these are not met, as well as identifies corrective measures to increase, in the indicated aspect, diversity in the composition of the Supervisory Board and the deadlines within which such measures should be implemented.

3. Methodology for carrying out suitability assessments

- 3.1. The individual suitability assessment of a Supervisory Board member is carried out as part of:
 - 1) initial (primary) assessment – which is carried out in connection with the selection of or appointment of a candidate for a Supervisory Board member to the Supervisory Board,
 - 2) periodic (follow-up) assessment – which is carried out once a year,
 - 3) additional (follow-up) assessment – which is carried out in the event of circumstances affecting the previous individual or collective suitability assessment of Supervisory Board members, in particular in the cases described in Table 1 in the Instruction explaining the suitability assessment process, which constitutes Appendix 1 to the Policy.
- 3.2. When making an additional suitability assessment, the nature of the circumstances necessitating the assessment is taken into account, including whether they are individual or collective in the context of the scope of duties assigned to a member or members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, and the credibility and reliability of the circumstances constituting the basis for such an assessment.
- 3.3. The suitability assessment is carried out based on the analysis of information provided by the Person subject to assessment, including information constituting the content of the declarations and forms published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology. Verification of information is made on the basis of documents, certificates or attestations issued by public registers or other authorities and entities provided by the Person subject to assessment, as well as conversations with persons indicated for references, if the Person subject to assessment disclosed them.
- 3.4. Suitability assessment is carried out using model assessment forms: (i) the PFSA consolidated individual (primary and follow-up) assessment form for candidates for, and persons holding the position of, the members of the bodies of banks and entities managing protection schemes, (ii) the collective suitability assessment form for the members of the Supervisory Board, (iii) the collective suitability assessment form for the members of the audit committee, published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology.
- 3.5. The performance of a suitability assessment involves at least the following steps on the part of the Bank:
 - 1) verifying the information in the fields filled in by the Person subject to assessment in the consolidated individual suitability assessment form,
 - 2) verifying the documents submitted by the Person subject to assessment, including CVs, other documents, certificates or attestations, as well as verifying the information contained therein regarding the Person subject to assessment,
 - 3) checking the references, if any, submitted by that person,
 - 4) optionally – conducting an assessment interview (assessment panel) to verify the factual accuracy of the assurances or statements made by the Person subject to assessment, or to obtain supplementary information on that person,
 - 5) formulating the result of the suitability assessment by filling in the relevant fields of the consolidated suitability assessment form.
 - 6) In the case of internal candidates (recruited internally within the Bank), the assessment takes into account how they perform the duties entrusted to them; in particular, it takes into account the available information on customer complaints regarding business operations in the areas of responsibility of the Person subject to assessment.

- 3.6. The suitability assessment takes into account the information disclosed in the relevant public records (criminal record including expungement or statute of limitations) at the time of the assessment.
- 3.7. For the purpose of the periodic or additional (follow-up) suitability assessment, it is possible to use a statement of the Person assessed that the information contained in the assessment forms or in the documents, certificates or attestations submitted by him/her as part of the previous assessment remains valid. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Bank requires the Persons assessed to submit updated certificates from public registers, not later than 12 months from the date of issuing the previous certificate.
 - 3.7.1. The suitability assessment of Supervisory Board members should be approved by the General Meeting. In the case of assessing the suitability of a candidate for a Supervisory Board member, the General Meeting's approval of the assessment is carried out with the support of the Nomination Committee and, if necessary, also with the support of the Advisory Team.
 - 3.7.2. The assessment of suitability in its particular aspects is carried out taking into account the principle of proportionality, including, depending on the criterion, such elements as the scale, nature and complexity of the Bank's activities, the number of the Supervisory Board members, the need to ensure the proper functioning of the Bank, ensuring the proper performance of management and supervisory tasks, incompatibility of offices, etc.

4. Procedure for carrying out a suitability assessment

4.1. General rules

- 4.1.1. In the course of assessing the suitability of the Persons subject to assessment, all parties involved are required to act in accordance with generally applicable laws, including those relating to the processing and protection of personal data, as well as the Bank's internal regulations, including the BNP Paribas Group Code of Conduct, and in accordance with the values of the BNP Paribas Group.
- 4.1.2. Persons subject to suitability assessment are obliged to provide all information/documents required for an individual suitability assessment to be carried out, including:
 - 1) with regard to an initial suitability assessment:
 - a) a properly completed initial (primary) individual assessment form compliant with the model consolidated form for (primary and follow-up) individual suitability assessment of candidates for, and persons holding the position of, the members of the bodies of banks and entities managing protection schemes, published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology;
 - b) statements in accordance with the templates constituting Appendix 2 and Appendix 3 to the Policy;
 - c) up-to-date (prepared no later than 30 days before submission) information from the Criminal Register or the criminal register in the country where the Person assessed had a place of residence in the period of 10 years preceding the suitability assessment,
 - d) other documents, such as CVs, certificates or attestations at the request of the Management Board and Organization Office, the Nomination Committee or the Advisory Team;
 - 2) with regard to a follow up or an additional suitability assessment:
 - a) a properly completed individual follow up assessment form compliant with the model consolidated form for (primary and follow-up) individual suitability assessment of candidates for, and persons holding the position of, the members of the bodies of banks and entities managing protection schemes, published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology – comprising the relevant form fields if the information/statements contained in the form submitted for the purpose of the earlier suitability assessment have changed, have been updated or have become outdated, unless provided as part of an additional suitability assessment within the past 12 months;
 - b) statements in accordance with the templates constituting Appendix 3 and Appendix 4, and in the case of a Supervisory Board member appointed as an Audit Committee member – additionally a statement in accordance with the template constituting Appendix 5 to the Policy;
 - c) up-to-date information from the Criminal Register or the criminal register in the country where the Person subject to assessment had a place of residence in the period of 10 years preceding the suitability assessment – If the assessment is carried out after 12 months from the date of issuing the previous information.
- 4.1.3. Before completing the consolidated individual assessment form or submitting the statement referred to in paragraph 4.1.2 point 1(b) or paragraph 6.2.1 point 2(b), the Persons subject to assessment are invited to read the Instruction explaining the suitability assessment process attached as Appendix 1 to the Policy.
- 4.1.4. The Person assessed shall complete the consolidated individual suitability form in the sections marked to be completed by that person, omitting the sections to be completed by the Bank. The Person assessed shall attach the documents indicated in the forms confirming the truthfulness of the information contained therein.
- 4.1.5. For the purpose of monitoring the occurrence of situations that may affect individual or collective suitability, the Persons subject to suitability assessment are obliged to immediately notify the Nomination Committee or the Advisory Team of any circumstances that affect their compliance with the requirements applicable to suitability assessment, including but not limited to the circumstances specified in Table 1 in the Instruction explaining the suitability process, constituting Appendix 1 to the Policy.

4.2. Procedure for carrying out a suitability assessment

- 4.2.1. With regard to candidates for members of the Supervisory Board, an individual initial suitability assessment is carried out before they take up their functions.
- 4.2.2. In special cases, the assessment may be carried out within no later than one month after taking up the functions of a Supervisory Board member if:
 - 1) the Supervisory Board member was appointed and nominated by the General Meeting of Shareholders, without being proposed by the Bank,
 - 2) a complete suitability assessment carried out prior to the appointment of the Supervisory Board member would impair the proper functioning of the Supervisory Board as a body of the Bank, including as a result of the occurrence of the following situations:
 - a) where the need to replace a member or members of the Supervisory Board arises suddenly or unexpectedly,
 - b) where the Supervisory Board member is removed because he/she is no longer considered a suitable person to properly perform his/her function.
- 4.2.3. An individual periodic suitability assessment of the Supervisory Board member, as well as a collective assessment of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, is carried out once a year.
- 4.2.4. The suitability assessment process is carried out at such a pace that allows for effective business decision-making. In particular, the entire suitability assessment process for a single Person subject to assessment should not take more than 90 days.
- 4.2.5. In the event of a negative individual initial assessment of a candidate for a Supervisory Board member, an additional collective suitability assessment of the remaining members of the Supervisory Board is carried out, taking into account the fact that an additional person cannot be immediately appointed to the Supervisory Board.
- 4.2.6. In the event of a negative individual periodic suitability assessment of a Supervisory Board member, or a negative collective suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, appropriate corrective measures are taken within a specified timeframe. Corrective measures may include in particular:
 - 1) a new division of responsibilities among the current members of the Supervisory Board,
 - 2) replacement of certain members of the Supervisory Board,
 - 3) appointment of additional members of the Supervisory Board;
 - 4) taking measures to mitigate the occurrence of conflicts of interest on the part of the Supervisory Board member,
 - 5) arranging for a single training session for certain members of the Supervisory Board or arranging for a training session for all members of the Supervisory Board.
- 4.2.7. In the event of occurrence of circumstances that may significantly affect the previous assessment of the individual or collective suitability of Supervisory Board members, in particular in the event of:
 - 1) the Bank becoming aware of potential or attempted commission of a crime by a Supervisory Board member in the area of money laundering or financing of terrorism, or the Bank becomes aware of circumstances that may undermine the result of the previous suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board (e.g., complaints, information about their conduct in the private sphere, etc.) or of other reasonable doubts concerning the credibility of a Supervisory Board member,
 - 2) Supervisory Board members taking up other functions in the management boards and supervisory boards in other entities,
 - 3) occurrence of other circumstances stipulated in Table 1 of the Instruction explaining the suitability process attached as Appendix 1 to the Policy,
- 4.2.8. The HR Unit immediately takes the necessary steps to collect relevant information or documents, which are then presented to the Nomination Committee and the Supervisory Board, respectively, for further analysis.
- 4.2.9. The Supervisory Board promptly analyses the impact of the circumstances, as referred to in section 7, on the suitability assessment of a member of the Supervisory Board or members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body, initiating, if necessary, an additional individual or collective suitability assessment, and then takes appropriate measures to maintain suitability, bearing in mind the need to involve the General Meeting in this process.
- 4.2.10. If more than one of the aforementioned circumstances requiring the Bank to carry out a suitability assessment arises simultaneously, the relevant suitability assessment may be carried out once.

4.3. Notifications of the suitability assessment being carried out

- 4.3.1. The Bank provides the PFSA with information on the results of its individual or collective suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board, and if requested by the PFSA – also provides the PFSA with relevant documentation pertaining to the assessment of the person concerned.
- 4.3.2. The Bank promptly notifies the PFSA of a negative individual assessment of a Person subject to assessment. A notification also includes information on the corrective measures taken or planned and the timeframe for their implementation.
- 4.3.3. The Bank promptly notifies the PFSA of the results of the negative periodic suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board as a whole body. A notification also includes information on the measures taken or planned to correct these deficiencies and the timeframe for their implementation.
- 4.3.4. The Bank promptly notifies the PFSA of the dismissal of a Supervisory Board member, explaining the reasons for such dismissal.
- 4.3.5. In the event of dismissal of a member of the Supervisory Board as a result of his/her negative individual suitability assessment, the Bank additionally completes the collective suitability assessment form in accordance with the template published by the PFSA Office, presenting in tabular form the results of the assessment in terms of meeting the requirements of knowledge, experience and skills members of the Supervisory Board and areas of specialization of members of the Supervisory Board.

5. Introduction into duties, training and succession process of Supervisory Board members

- 5.1. The Management Board, with the support of the HR Unit, is responsible for determining the process of introducing into duties for newly appointed Supervisory Board members and the succession process in the event of their resignation or dismissal from office.
- 5.2. The objective of the introduction process is to:
 - 1) facilitate the understanding of the applicable statutory provisions, executives and administrative provisions by Supervisory Board members
 - 2) facilitate their understanding of the Bank's organisational structure, strategy and business model, the Bank's risk profile and other arrangements related to the Bank's management by providing them with sufficient knowledge regarding their role as Supervisory Board members;
 - 3) provide them with a general and, if necessary, individually tailored training programme;
 - 4) provide Supervisory Board members with knowledge of the culture and values, behaviours and strategies associated with the Bank.
- 5.3. The Bank will allocate adequate human and financial resources for effective induction and training of Supervisory Board members to ensure that the person concerned is suitable to hold the position of a Supervisory Board member and fulfils the requirements applicable to his/her position.
- 5.4. Newly appointed members of the Supervisory Board will receive all necessary introductory information no later than 1 month after taking the position. On the other hand, the induction of a new member of the Supervisory Board will be accomplished within a period of 6 months.
- 5.5. Where members of the Supervisory Board are subject to requirements for acquiring a certain amount of knowledge and skills, training and induction will be aimed at remedying the identified deficiencies in a timely manner, if possible, prior to the actual taking of position, and otherwise immediately after the actual taking of position. These goals should be achieved no later than one year after taking the position.
- 5.6. Supervisory Board Members, at Supervisory Board meetings, are presented with information on issues relevant to the competence of the Supervisory Board, inter alia, related to changes in regulatory requirements, new areas of activities, strategic objectives and risks inherent in the Bank's activities, thus ensuring the continuous development of the knowledge, skills and competencies of the Supervisory Board members, to the effect that each member of the Supervisory Board can independently familiarise himself/herself with information that may have a material impact on the prudent and stable management of the Bank.
- 5.7. All documents submitted to the Supervisory Board and documents containing key information from the perspective of the Bank's management and supervision of the Bank's management are available simultaneously in Polish and in English.
- 5.8. An interpreter from Polish into English is at all times available to non-Polish speaking members of the Supervisory Board, including – at each request of at least one member of the Supervisory Board – the assistance of an interpreter during meetings of the Supervisory Board.
- 5.9. Training rules for newly appointed Members of the Supervisory Board should be and regularly adapted to reflect any significant changes in the management system or changes in generally applicable or internal legal regulations, as well as the implementation of strategic changes in the Bank, the introduction of new products or other significant changes and situations. On the market.
- 5.10. In cases necessary to ensure the proper performance of the entrusted tasks or identified competency gaps in the field of individual or collective suitability, as well as in the case of reported individual and collective development needs, actions are taken to supplement or acquire the expected competencies by members of the Supervisory Board.

- 5.11. The Bank will identify areas in which training is required for the Supervisory Board as a whole and for its individual members.
- 5.12. The members of the Supervisory Board are required to update and develop the knowledge and skills necessary to perform their duties. For this purpose, a member of the Supervisory Board may apply by his/her own for induction or training.
- 5.13. The organisation of the reported development activities of members of the Supervisory Board is carried out by the unit responsible for improving competencies and organising training in cooperation with the Board Office, the HR Unit, as well as with other organisational units of the Bank, which are appropriate in terms of the substantive scope of the development activity.

6. Risks

Risks	A way to reduce the risk
Risk of non-compliance with generally applicable provisions of law, other Internal Regulations or guidelines of supervisory authorities.	- The Policy limits the risk of inconsistency with regulations by introducing the Polish Financial Supervision Authority's audit recommendation and requirements arising from EU and national regulations.

Circumstances requiring of reassessment of individual suitability of a Supervisory Board member. (B)	1	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. An event that initiates an individual reassessment process may be the following circumstances: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) there are reasonable doubts concerning the validity of an individual or collective assessment of Supervisory Board members, due to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) receiving information that a Supervisory Board member has been charged in criminal proceedings or in proceedings for a fiscal offence, or that a Supervisory Board member has caused significant property losses, b) the PFSA having issued reservations as to the results of the assessment, c) media information concerning the Persons subject to assessment, which will be considered relevant to the assessment process, d) becoming aware of other circumstances that may undermine the result of the previous assessment of Supervisory Board members (e.g., complaints, information on additional time commitment related to the external position); 2) events having a material impact on the reputation of a Supervisory Board member or the Bank as an institution, including if Supervisory Board members do not comply with the Bank's conflict of interest policy, 3) as part of the Supervisory Board's review of internal management principles, 4) in the event that a person is entrusted with additional competencies/takes up additional positions or in the event of a change in the scope of competencies or responsibilities for the position of a particular Supervisory Board member or the appointment of a Supervisory Board member to another position, 5) if material breaches of duties of members of the Supervisory Board are identified, 6) if there are regular or flagrant cases of negative individual or collective assessment of Supervisory Board members, 7) in any other case if the Advisory Team or the Nomination Committee determines that the circumstance has a material impact on the suitability of the Supervisory Board member. 2. The process is initiated and coordinated by the Nomination Committee with the support of the HR Unit, which undertakes appropriate technical activities before the scheduled date of the Nomination Committee meeting.
Initial recruitment activities / related to reassessment of		The Management Board Office makes contact with the Candidate or a member of the Supervisory Board and, together with the Instruction explaining the suitability assessment process constituting Appendix 1 to the Policy, provides him with all relevant forms and templates of statements prepared by the HR Unit, or - at the Candidate's request - previously completed documents.

Process	Stage in the process	Description of actions
Collection of documentation (A and B)	2	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Advisory Team defines the scope of the suitability assessment, including the scope of information and documents required from the Person subject to assessment. In particular, the Advisory Team determines whether and to what extent the Person subject to assessment completes the PFSA consolidated individual assessment form published by the PFSA Office as part of the PFSA Methodology. 2. The Management Board Office obtains from the Candidate information and documents necessary to carry out the suitability assessment, in particular: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) CV of the Person assessed, 2) the relevant fields of assessment forms filled out by the Person assessed, 3) statements signed by the Person assessed, using the templates constituting Appendix 2, Appendix 3, Appendix 4 and Appendix 5 to the Policy - if they are required in a given case, 4) 5) a list of references (if available and voluntarily provided by the Candidate), 5) 6) other documents confirming information on education, skills and professional experience (these may also be certificates or certificates of completion of professional qualification courses such as ACCA, CIM, CFA, diplomas and other distinctions), 6) 7) documentation necessary for the assessment regarding the devoting of sufficient time by the evaluated Candidate or a member of the Supervisory Board. 3. All documents are collected in accordance with the applicable law, in particular in terms of personal data processing and protection. 4. Where the assessed person refuses to provide any of the required documents which may contain the data of key importance for the assessment process, the Advisory Team may, in consultation with the Nomination Committee, decide to reject the relevant candidate. 5. The HR Unit verifies the documents provided by the Management and Organization Office. If they are incomplete or incorrectly filled in, the HR Unit requests, via the Management Board Office, the Person subject to assessment to complete them; and after receiving them, it verifies the documents again. 6. The Head of the Remuneration, Benefits and Reporting Department maintains records of all external professional and political functions of assessed persons. The records are updated based on the statements received from the assessed persons or after receiving information of such changes in a different manner.

Process	Stage in the process	Description of actions
Review documentation (A and B)	3	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Advisory Team reviews the documents provided by the assessed person in terms of competence profile and requirements for the specific position (guidelines included in the job descriptions and in the regulations regarding the values, the principles of ethical behaviour, and the principles of governance applicable in the Bank). 2. The Advisory Team reviews the reliability of candidates using the available sanction lists (in particular the list published by the European Union – http://ec.europa.eu/external_relations/cfsp/sanctions/consolidated_en.htm). A negative result means that the assessed person is excluded from the recruitment process (in the case of candidates for the position of a Supervisory Board member) or it means that relevant corrective measures are undertaken with regard to the assessed person in accordance with the applicable law (in the case of the existing Supervisory Board members). 3. If the result of the documentation review clearly shows that the assessed person does not have the expected qualifications (i.e. the result is incompatible with the minimum requirements included in the competence and position profile, the requirements set out in Appendix 6) or does not meet the requirements of the other assessment criteria (including reputation, conflict of interest), the Advisory Team decides to exclude the assessed person from the recruitment process (in the case of candidates for the position of a Supervisory Board member) or takes appropriate corrective measures with regard to the assessed person in accordance with the applicable law (in the case of the existing Supervisory Board members).
Check referrals (A and B)	4	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. With regard to the assessed persons who were positively reviewed in terms of documentation, the Advisory Team may perform a referrals check on the basis of a list of contacts provided voluntarily by the assessed person. 2. References are checked during phone calls or meetings in terms of: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) knowledge, skills, and professional experience, 2) professional successes and failures, including awarded distinctions, 3) competencies specific to the position, 4) guarantee (while as part of the guarantee, the reputation, honesty and ethics as well as independence of judgement is subject to assessment) – in line with the BNP Paribas Group Code of Conduct applicable at the Bank), 3. The final product of the work at stages 3 and 4 is a collective compilation prepared by the Advisory Team with a summary of the documentation and referral review, which is submitted to the Nomination Committee.

Process	Stage in the process	Description of actions
Assessment panel (optional) (A and B)	5	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Nomination Committee reviews the summary statement and documentation provided by the Advisory Team. 2. The Nomination Committee/Advisory Team may decide to conduct an assessment interview (assessment panel). An assessment interview refers to the following aspects: education, knowledge, professional experience, skills and expertise, reputation, honesty, ethics and independence of judgement, and potential conflicts of interest. Personal competencies may also be verified during the interview, as set out in the section of the assessment form concerning the competencies of the Person assessed. 3. The Nomination Committee/Advisory Team delegates at least two persons from among its members to conduct assessment interviews. It is recommended that at least one of the two delegates be a representative of the HR Area. It must be ensured that the composition of the assessing team exclude any potential conflicts of interests (e.g. assessing one's superior). The persons delegated to conduct interviews should evaluate the candidate objectively and should be free from pressure from anyone. 4. Assessment interviews are held at a time agreed upon by the assessed person and the Nomination Committee / Advisory Team. If the assessed person fails to attend the meeting twice (and his/her absence is not justified by important reasons), this may serve as a basis to exclude the assessed person from the recruitment process (in the case of candidates) or to undertake relevant steps with regard to the assessed person (in the case of the existing members of the Supervisory Board) in accordance with the applicable law. 5. During the assessment panel, the Nomination Committee / Advisory Team relies on the documentation submitted by the candidate, referrals, competence- and position-related requirements. 6. If the Nomination Committee entertain significant doubts or has insufficient information on the assessed person, they may decide to deepen the assessment process. Then, they request the Advisory Team to complement documentation (perform additional tasks) within the limits of the applicable law.
Supplement documentation (A and B)	6	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Upon the request of and within the scope specified by the Nomination Committee, the Advisory Team takes actions to obtain additional information to support the process of suitability assessment of members of the Supervisory Board. 2. If the action recommended by the Nomination Committee requires the assistance of external parties (e.g. independent consultants), the Advisory Team is responsible for recommending the conclusion of relevant agreements, including non-disclosure agreements and personal data protection agreements. In particular, attention should be paid to the need (legal obligation) to inform the assessed persons on the activities commissioned to external parties.
Summary of the assessment process / initial assessment (A, B)	7	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Advisory Team prepares a compilation of the suitability assessment results and makes an initial suitability assessment in the assessment questionnaire; 2. In the case of a collective assessment, the Advisory Team, based on the individual assessment questionnaires, makes an initial assessment in the collective assessment questionnaire.

Process	Stage in the process	Description of actions
Recommendation in the scope of suitability assessment (A and B)	8	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Nomination Committee prepares a recommendation for individual or collective suitability assessment based on the recommendation of the Advisory Team. 2. In the case of assessment of the Key Function Holders, the recommendation is prepared by the Advisory Team. 3. The final product of the work of stages 7 and 8 in the suitability assessment process is a summary of the suitability assessment process prepared by the Advisory Team in a document form, in cooperation with the HR Unit and approved by the Nomination Committee, which should include: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) a list of actions taken as part of the suitability assessment, 2) a list of documents provided by the Person subject to assessment and/or subcontractors, 3) conclusions from the audit (information about any shortcomings, doubts of the Advisory Team /Nomination Committee), 4) the initial assessment of the Advisory Team and the recommendation of the Nomination Committee regarding the suitability assessment, expressed in the prepared suitability assessment forms.
Suitability assessment decision (A and B)	9	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The final decision on the suitability assessment belongs to the General Meeting, or in the case of an additional suitability assessment, if it is carried out (due to the nature of the circumstances resulting in the obligation to carry it out immediately) before the General Meeting is convened - to the Supervisory Board as a whole body. 2. The decision on the suitability assessment is made based on the recommendations from the Nomination Committee by adopting or rejecting it (in line with the applicable majority of votes and in line with the applicable minimum number of the attendees). Decisions are made in an independent manner. 3. In the case of a negative assessment of a person performing the function of a member of the Supervisory Board, or the Supervisory Board as a whole body, measures are taken to restore the state in which all the members of the Supervisory Board as well as each of the Supervisory Board as a whole body meet the criteria of suitability. 4. The final product of works at this stage is: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a) an assessment form specifying the result of the assessment of the suitability of the Candidate or member of the Supervisory Board, together with an assessment form consistent with the standard integrated individual assessment form of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority published by the Office of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority as part of the Polish Financial Supervision Authority's Methodology, together with attached documentation presented by the Person subject to the assessment, b) report from the meeting of the competent authority; an annex to the protocol is a summary of the suitability assessment process.
Feedback for the assessed person (C)		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The assessed person has the right to receive information on the course of suitability assessment process, and in particular to receive: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) a list of actions taken to assess suitability, 2) a list of documents reviewed during the process, 3) suitability assessment results. 2. The above information is provided to the assessed person no later than 30 days from the date of completion of the assessment process. 3. The Bank is obliged to ensure anonymity of interviewees and confidentiality of specific information / component opinions that affected the final suitability assessment.
